

LEDBURY PRIMARY SCHOOL

This week at LPS

Community Club

Our new community club have made a great start to improving and halping our school community, and also the wider town community.

We have spent some time weeding and tidying the school grounds, and this week we did a littler pick on some of the paths around school. Thank you community club!

Children's Assembly

This week, Ronnie and Lily led a brilliant assembly all about amazing animals. We really enjoyed all the amazing facts!

Y1 HISTORY VISIT

Year One enjoyed a fun and interesting history day on Wednesday. We researched the history of our school and town were fascinated to find out that LPS used to be on a site opposite Tesco and that our school uniform was red, not blue. We went on a field trip around Ledbury, examined historical artefacts, learned some playground games that were popular in 100 years ago and even sketched the historic Ledbury Markey House.'

Herefordshire Council is hosting a Non Violent Resistance (NVR) three-day workshop for parents and carers on the following dates and times at Maylords Orchard, Hereford, HR1 2DT.

What is Non-Violent Resistance (NVR)?

NVR is a peaceful approach that helps to improve relationships between parents, carers and young people. The approach helps to raise the presence of adults in a young person's life. You'll learn to avoid escalations, build a useful support network and about the importance of self-care.

- Wednesday 27 January - 9.30am to 2.30pm*
- Wednesday 3 February - 9.30am to 2.30pm*
- Wednesday 10 February - 9.30am to 2.30pm*

* Participants are required to attend all three workshops.

Who will benefit from the training?

NVR works especially well for the parents and carers of a young person who shows difficult behaviours like hitting, kicking, spitting, threatening behaviour or violence towards themselves and others (self harm, suicidal thoughts, disrupted eating etc.). NVR can also be useful for children and young people who are neuro-diverse (for example diagnosed with Autism or ADHD).

For more information and to book a place on the three workshops, please email NVR@herefordshire.gov.uk or call Wendy Glinski 07792 882167.
