

LEDBURY PRIMARY SCHOOL

This week at LPS

Town Council Offices

We had the privilege of being asked to decorate the windows of The Town Council Offices situated in Church Lane in readiness for Christmas. This is to coincide with the Ledbury Lights switch on for the town on Sunday. Yr1 and 2s helped to decorate and walked up to view the finished windows for a photo shoot!

VALUE OF THE MONTH

BE PEACEFUL

HERE GIRLS CAN

8 Year 6 girls attended the annual 'Here Girls Can' festival in Hereford and had a fantastic day. They had the opportunity to try some new activities with a big focus on having fun with no judgement from anyone. The first activity - aerial hoop - ended up being the girls' firm favourite of the day and they kept asking when they could try it again! Other activities included some fitness (which the girls gave their all in), yoga and Netfit. We cannot wait to go back next year.

DEER PARK CARE HOME VISIT

Today some of our House Captains went to Deer Park Care home to help the residents decorate Christmas trees. Here's what they had to say about it:

Cerys - I think it was really cool that we got to do the Christmas decorations with the residents there because they were all helping us and it was nice to talk to them. It was very festive and we had a super tour of the accommodation and everyone seemed so happy. It was so nice!

Millie & Ruby - One of the residents shared with us how they like to spend Christmas with their family. It was really nice because they were all talking to us. Some of them forgot the moments we were sharing with them but they were always smiling and it was nice to learn how dementia affects people. We had such a nice time.
