

LEDBURY PRIMARY SCHOOL

This week at LPS

Y3&4 Football

On Thursday we went to Hereford to play against other schools. Our team was Kacper, Cade, Jayden, Olly, Tymon, Nigel, Peter, Misha and Alfie.

Our first match we won 2-0 and then we lost 3-0. We won all of our other matches 1-0. We all enjoyed it!

GRANDPARENTS' MORNING

Over 120 Grandparents visited us this week for our special day with them. Many brought amazing souvenirs and photos to share with the children.

Here is some feedback from two Grandparents:

I would like to thank you for putting on Grandparents' day again this year.

A most enjoyable morning, it was lovely to see well behaved children engaging in discussions, with smiles on their faces. It was also lovely to see the Young Voices Choir in Birmingham a lot of hard work had obviously gone into putting this together so thank you to all involved I know the boys thoroughly enjoyed it.

Thank you for hosting Grandparents morning.

Very welcoming, lovely atmosphere and great to see my grandson thriving in his nursery class. I can see why he loves his time at Little Wrens.

The Courtyard Youth Theatre gives young people a chance to play and explore creativity through various art forms. Members participate in fun learning activities and perform in shows throughout the year. This helps them develop key skills like communication, teamwork, and problem-solving. We provide a supportive space where young people can build confidence while making new friends. It's an engaging way for kids to grow both as artists and individuals.
