This week at LPS

Mayor's Civic Service

We were delighted to be invited to attend the Civic Service last Sunday, our choir performing with Ledbury Community Choir. The choir sang beautifully!

Instagram

We are making the switch away from class twitter (X) pages to year group Instagram pages. Social media is a great way for us to share the weekly learning from inside the classroom with you at home. Please ensure you complete the PERMISSION FORM so we know who can be included in photos.

Pumpkin Pete's wheelspin winner

Thank you to Pumpkin Petes for donating a family ticket as a prize and to all who supported by buying tickets. The winner drawn was Nate in Y2- we hope you enjoy visiting!

Alice in Wonderland

This week we were fortunate to have M&M productions in school performing 'Alice in Wonderland'. All children from Reception to Y6 enjoyed this colourful rendition of the traditional story. Huge thanks to Devant for sponsoring this performance, ensuring that it was free for all children.

Here's what Y3 thought of the performance...

"It's amazing, it should become a classic." - Naomi

"The songs were fun!" - Kacper

"It was lovely." - Arthur

"I really liked it when they gave us high fives." - Daria

"I loved the cup of tea bit." - Lexi

"It was funny when the white rabbit kept running away from Alice." - Murray

"I liked it when the caterpillar turned into a butterfly, the wings were sparkly." - Joseph

"I liked finding out I have 364 unbirthdays and 1 birthday!" - Kacper

SPOTLIGHT ON...

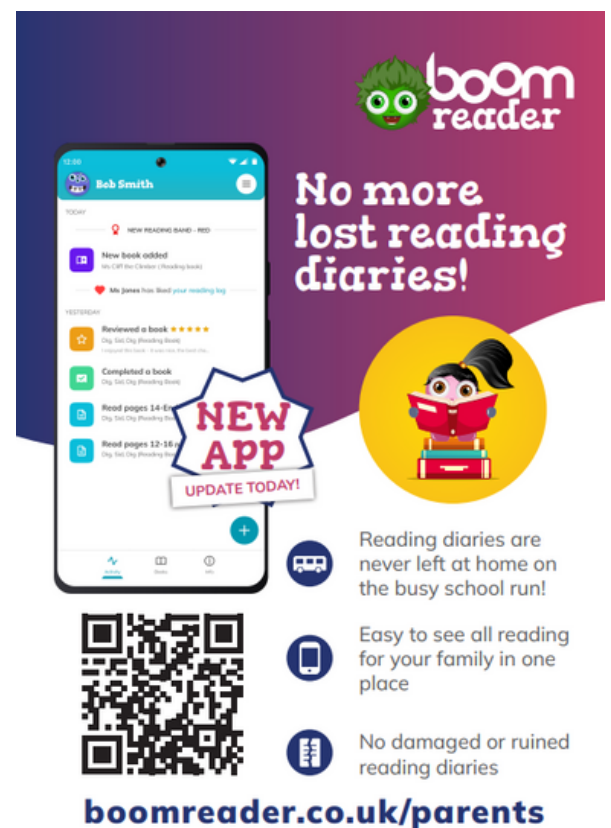

BOOMREADER

Online reading diaries

This year marks the start of the second year of using an online reading diary system in school. The feedback from parents has been really positive and we know children are motivated by collecting the 'gems'. The system also allows teachers to easily log reading at school, as well as monitor reading at home.

If you have any technical difficulties, please come in and we will try to help. If online reading diaries aren't possible for you we can issue a paper diary instead.

No more lost reading diaries!

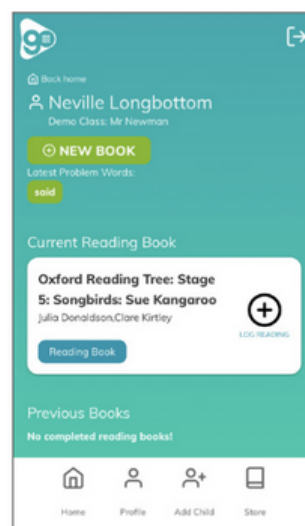

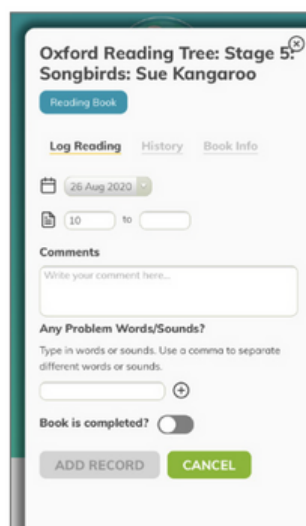

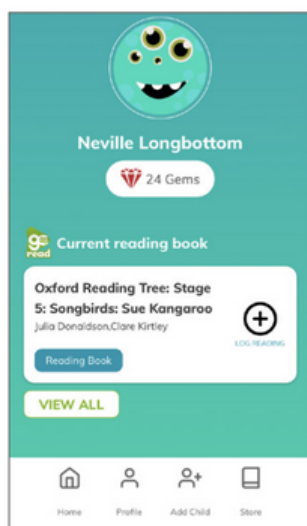

NEW APP
